I received this ticket after reporting to city officials that my tenant had moved out, and unknown occupants were staying in my property. I had also previously requested police assistance in removing the unknown occupants.

My first request for dismissal (to the Judge):

TO: CLERK OF CIRCUIT COURT

RE: CASE NUMBER 2016 OV 400378

CLERK OF CIRCUIT COURT #65 THIRD RUDICIAL CIRCUIT MADISON COUNTY, ILLINOIS

Unfortunately, I Kevin Link will be unavailable for my court appearance on July 14th .

NOTE:

During the 1st week of May 2016,

My wife informed the Granite City inspection department that my tenant at 2506 lowa had moved out and unknown people had illegally moved in without permission.

I contacted the Captain of Granite City Crime Free Housing in hopes of police assistance in their removal.

I also made a separate request to the Granite City police for assistance on their immediate removal (I was denied any police or city assistance).

I then filed for the eviction of "unknown occupants" on May 4th 2016 and was granted re-possession as of June 30th. (which I also informed the Granite City inspection department).

With this in mind, I request either case dismissal or reschedule.

Sincerely

Kevin Link PO Box #22 Granite City, IL

Along with my request for dismissal, I provided proof to the judge that I had already filed for eviction of the unknown occupants that moved in without my permission, prior to the issuing of the ticket.

Signed and sworn to before me (Clerk of the Circuit Clerk - Notary Public) Original to Court Copy to Defendant Your Copy EXHIBIT K-3

Granite city officials responded to my filed statement by verbally dropping the ticket at my next hearing then directed the same judge as in ticket 153 to issue a silent arrest warrant without notifying me. I found out about the arrest warrant about a year later when I met with police to report a felony which occurred at one of my properties, and I was arrested.
